

ODR Flags

FLAG	USAGE	DEFINITION
AFF	Driver's License	Suspension for Non-appearance affidavit. Affects driving privileges only.
DI	Driver's License	Suspension for mandatory conviction violations and departmental acts under RS 32:414. (e.g., DWI, medical, etc). Affects driving privileges only.
FEE	Driver's License	Fee only required for clearance. Means hard suspension and/or paperwork requirements have been satisfied. Is still considered a suspended status. Affects driving privileges only.
FR	Driver's License & Plate	Suspension for Safety Responsibility. Affects driving and registration privileges. Any vehicle flagged "FR" cannot be transferred to any related individual (blood or marriage) or any party residing at the same address.
NI	Driver's License & Plate (DL is valid for driving purposes)	Block of renewal/duplicate privileges affecting licenses and the particular vehicle involved. Vehicles can be transferred to any other party; however affected owner cannot apply for any transaction.
NV	Plate (DL is valid for driving purpose)	Notice of Violation Flag. Set in conjunction with date ticket issued. Generally replaced with NI flag when the violation is added to the record and if plate cancelled, CP will also be set.
SF	Plate (Obsolete)	"Satisfied". Previously used to show satisfaction of any case worked under the Compulsory Insurance law. It is now procedure to set a VS flag with a CP flag and simple remove the NI, if set, when the case is cleared.
SUS	Driver's License	Suspended. Used in conjunction with the appropriate defining flag(s) to indicate the status of the record. (i.e., SUS DI)
